BLEED

MAKE YOUR WAY THROUGH THE ABANDONED FACTORY THAT CONTAINS THE VERY THING THAT HAS DESTROYED HUMANITY!

Robots are all that are left of humans in a dismal future. You take on the role of "Test subject no. 0," an anonymous bot that is woken from its nap and assigned a duty to halt the entity known as "E#####." Unaware of your background and in need of repair, you proceed to the old factory where many dire events will unfold.

Discover why you were activated to halt "E#####" as you explore this 2D Metroidvania and attempt to restore yourself by gaining new talents and abilities from other malfunctioning robots.
